

1875
The Information of Askurum Marwari

taken by me,

Perchment

Esquire, one of

Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in and for the Town of Calcutta, at Fort

William in Bengal, the 6th day of November 1874, who saith on Solemn Affirmation, and in presence and hearing of the Prisoner charged by of 1. Boodram Ghose by of 1. A min of Ghose Perchment

I am a cloth merchant & member of the firm of Chotmull Gohchand carrying business in Monohur Das Khatun -

Calcutta - I know the 1st def - he is a coolie - I remember that 2nd def last month - I engaged the def 1 as a coolie to carry load for the goods from Sadra to my shop on the 1st floor - There were 2 other coolies employed besides def 1 -

I was upstairs in my shop receiving the goods - My gamashita I saw with me downstairs despatching the goods -

The pots were piece good. The def 1 brought me a load of pots containing 30 pieces of jacoret - he brought us more - I didn't return that day - he brought the 1st load about 4 1/2 Pm.
The other comes with buying pots - I need 14 packets all the 6 short - I expected 20 - I got some information about 5 Pm from Lyonsville - I looked on def 1 in vain - I found 6 packets this morning - I saw information to the Police - I saw def 1 in custody at 9 Pm. He was bought some by Mr. Ashmun Bull - On the next day

I saw my property - at the Mammals 6 packets containing 30 pieces - This is the property upon the Court - the value of it is $120/- All the pieces bear the mark 4086 - & the name of Kittiwick Bullen & Co in large letters.

I bought them from Kittiwick

Bullen & Co's office on the 15th Oct.

I saw the def 2 first at the Mammals - I charge him on information - with the use the property with a good knowledge.

Crossed. Other accounts also that is procurable for the same quarter - I haven't sold this quantity before -

J. G. Bullen & Co

24/10/2181

Supd. by me J. G. Bullen & Co

1870
 1870

Handwritten text in Chinese characters, likely a list or record, written in a cursive style. The text is arranged in vertical columns, reading from right to left. The characters are somewhat faded and the paper shows signs of age and staining.